

PEACE NEPAL TREKS

... guiding you through your journey of a lifetime.

Mountain Biking

OVERVIEW

Mountain Biking

Nepal is emerging as a playground for mountain bikers and offers a great array of dirt roads that are perfect for off-road biking. A number of bicycle renting outlets and the easy availability of food and accommodation along the trail has contributed in making Nepal a paradise for mountain bikers. Peace Nepal Treks has excellent relations with the best licensed biking companies in the industry and we will happily assist you should you choose to hit the dirt roads of Nepal.

Suggested mountain biking Itineraries around Kathmandu and Pokhara:

Three Day biking tour

Kathmandu- Dhulikhel – Namobuddha via Panauti

Day 1 After a hearty breakfast we start biking to to Dhulikhel, visiting the ancient city of Bhaktapur in between. The historical city is home to the Durbar Square, the Nyatapola temple, a pottery square, a woodcarving centre and peacock designed windows. We stay over night in Dhulikhel after viewing the magnificent sunset.

Day 2 After breakfast we cycle around Dhulikhel, stopping in between to take in all the natural and cultural beauty surrounding us and head towards Namobuddha. Over night in Namobuddha.

Day 3 After an early breakfast we ride back to Kathmandu. In between, we visit the historical city of Panauti.

Day biking trip to Pokhara valley

Biking around Pokhara offers both sightseeing and photographic opportunities in the beautiful lake city. On this trip we visit some of the most famous sites in Pokhara, including David's Fall, the Tibetan refugee camp, the central market, the Mahendra cave, the Seti river gorge before stopping besides the Phewa Lake.

Day trip to Sarankot

The day trip to Sarankot starts after an early breakfast. During this trip we get to take in the beauty of the extended Annapurna range, including the sunrise and sunset from and behind the great Himalayan range.